

Bank Account Management System UML diagrams:

1) Use case diagram: The diagram shows the functionalities that can be made by the user of the bank system.

2)State diagram: The diagram shows the states presented in the main() function of the program and the transition between these states.

3)Class diagram: The diagram shows the structure of each class in the system and the relation between the different classes.

